Certificate Course on Communicative English (2022-23)

The certificate course on "Communicative English" aims to give students a formal and methodical exposure communication skills. This approach is practical in true sense. It provides an opportunity to the students to learn and comprehend communication skills and apply in practical setting. Eminent professors are invited by the institution for taking classes of such subject related programs. The college started the spoken English classes in the year 2018-19 and since then this course is going on every year. In this session, 32 students were enrolled in the course and Dr. Kamdeva Sahu, Ex-Reader and Head, Department of English of Gangadhar Meher Autonomous College was the main resource person for the course. He oriented the students in 18 classes starting from 08.02.2023 to 28.02.2023. These classes were held in one-hour duration each day. The MCQ based examination was conducted at the end of the course, and the students secured good results by completing the course. All the enrolled students passed the examination and certificates were issued to them. After completing this course, the students understood basic Communicative English skills, gained insight about vowel and consonant sounds and comprehended about phonetic rules.
