5. The amount of earnest money to be deposited will be 1% (one percent) of the tendered amount.

6. Any person who submits the tender shall fill up the usual printed form stating what percentage he is willing to undertake the work. Incomplete tender and tenders which propose any alteration in the work specified in the said form in invitation to tender or which contain any other condition any sort, or omit note the time within which the work can be finished or which are not accompanied by the required earnest money will be liable for rejection. No tender shall include more than one work, but contractor who wish to tender for two or more works shall submit a separate tender for each. Tender shall bear the name of the work to which they refer written outside the envelope.

7. The Engineer or his duly authorized officer will open the tenders in the presence of any intending contractor who may be present at the time and will enter the amount of several tenders in a comparative statement in a suitable form. In the event of tender being rejected the earnest money so furnished will be refunded.

8. The Engineer shall have the right of rejecting all or any of the tenders.

9. In the event of tender being selected for acceptance the Engineer who opened the tender will if he is competent to accept the tender, inform the tenderer of the selected tender who shall there upon sign copies of the specification and other documents mentioned in rules 4 and for the purpose of identification for his acceptance with the tender. The tenderer of the selected tender shall also deposit the required amount of security money within the prescribed time. If the tenderer fails to deposit the required amount of the security money within the prescribed time, the Engineer may reject the tender.

If the Engineer is not competent to accept the tender the tenderer himself, he shall inform the tenderer of the tender which he decides to recommend for acceptance. Such tenderer shall there upon sign forthwith copies of the specification and other documents mentioned in rules in 1 & 4 and shall deposit the required amount of the security money within the prescribed time. The tender with specification and other documents signed by the tenderer will then be forwarded for acceptance to the Engineer who is competent to accept the same. If the Engineer rejects the tender, the security money deposited shall be refunded to the tenderer.

10. When a tender is selected for acceptance, the tenderer shall deposit the required amount of security money in the forms of Deposit receipt of Schedule Bank / Kissan Vikash Patra / Post Office Savings Bank Account / National Savings Certificate / Postal Office Time Deposit Account duly pledged in favour of the Executive Engineer as per the terms and conditions laid down in OGFR. No tender shall be finally accepted until the required amount of the security money has been deposited.

11. The amount of security money to be deposited by the tenderer whose tender is selected for acceptance shall be 7 or 5 percent as the case may be of the estimated value of work and towards this amount the earnest money already deposited by him shall be credited.

Any balance of the security money outstanding after completion of the contract with the tenderer may be made up by deduction of 5 or 3 percent as the case may be of the amount of each payment to be made to him under clause 2 of the conditions of contract for work done under the contract.
